OUR APPROACH

It is our responsibility to ensure clients' business sustainability for the purpose of meeting their objectives and then their expectations about our services. Meeting our clients' satisfaction is significance for us.

Nevertheless, in the profession, we are significantly aware of the requirement for ethical integrity. Thus, we always perform our job with independence and objectivity and monitor any possible conflict of interest between our experts and relevant clients. Consequently, we have implemented a quality control system covering the entire departments in our company.

The quality control system that we have built in the company is based on certain criteria connected with the quality of the audit and embraces the following topics:

- Compliance for International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS).
- Respect for Code of Conduct and Objectivity.
- Ability and skill of colleagues who will perform the service.
- Execution and supervision of any engagement.
- Accepting and carrying out mandates.
- Technical consulting.
- Independent review.
- Quality Control.
